The Rules of Procedures for the Nomination and Remuneration Committee of the Board of Directors of China Zheshang Bank Co., Ltd.

Chapter I General Provisions

Article 1 To standardize the procedure behavior of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee of the Board of China Zheshang Bank Co., Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as our “Bank”) and safeguard the Nomination and Remuneration Committee of the Board to implement duties in accordance with laws and regulations, these Rules of Procedures are formulated pursuant to the laws and regulations, departmental rules, the listing rules of the place where the Bank’s shares are listed, the Articles of Association of China Zheshang Bank Co., Ltd. (the “Articles of Association of our Bank”) and other relevant laws and regulations.

Article 2 The Nomination and Remuneration Committee is a specialized organization established by the Board of Directors in accordance with the Articles of Association of our Bank. Regarding our Bank’s interests as the supreme criterion, the Committee exercises authority independently in accordance with the Articles of Association of our Bank and is accountable to the Board.

Chapter II Composition

Article 3 The Nomination and Remuneration Committee must comprise a minimum of three directors and one chairman who should be an independent director. The majority of the Committee members shall be independent directors. The chairman shall preside over the work of the Committee. The chairman and other members shall be nominated by the Chairman of the Directors Board and elected by the Board.

If the Nomination and Remuneration Committee and its composition fail to meet the requirements of this article, the Board of Directors should immediately describe the details and reasons for failure to meet the requirements through public announcement based on the requirements of the securities regulatory bodies in the place where our Bank’s shares are listed, and fill the vacancy within three months from the date failure to satisfy the aforementioned provisions in accordance with the provisions of this article.

Article 4 The term of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee is identical to the term of office of the Directors. Members can be re-elected upon the expiration of the term of office. During this period, if a member no longer acts as the director, such member will automatically lose the member eligibility and the Board will make up the number of members in accordance with the Articles of Association of our Bank.

Chapter III Responsibilities

Article 5 In accordance with relevant provisions of the laws, regulations and the Articles of Association of our Bank, the main duties of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee are as follows:

- (I) To make recommendations to the composition of the Board of Directors according to our Bank's operation, asset size and the share structure:
 - 1. To annually review the structure, quantity and composition of the Board of Directors (including the skills, knowledge and experience);
 - 2. To make recommendations on any changes to the Board of Directors in response to our Bank's strategy.

- (II) To develop election standards and procedures for directors and senior management and make recommendations to the Board of Directors:
 - 1. To review the diversification of Board members (including but not limited to gender, age, culture and educational background, race or professional experience);
 - 2. To assist the Board of Directors in the formulation of policies related to diversification of the Board members, and disclose their policies or policy summary in the Corporate Governance Report.

- (III) To propose Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Directors Board candidates to the Board and to make selection and review on the selection of the directors and the President, Vice President, Chief Financial Officer, Secretary to the Board and other senior management and their qualifications for the position, including:
 - 1. To identify individuals with appropriate qualifications as directors and to give advice to the Board of Directors;
 - 2. To make recommendations to the Board of Directors on the nomination, appointment, reappointment and removal of directors and the succession plan of directors (especially the Chairman of the Directors Board and President);
 - 3. To make recommendations to the Board of Directors on the appointment or dismissal of senior management;
 - 4. To audit the independence of independent directors.

- (IV) To formulate the assessment standards for and evaluate the performance of directors and senior management, and to develop and review the remuneration policies and schemes for directors and senior management, including:
 - 1. To make recommendations to the Board of Directors on the remuneration policy and structure for all directors and senior management and on the establishment of a formal and transparent procedure for developing remuneration policy;
 - 2. To review and consider the remuneration proposal for senior management based on the corporate policies and objectives established by the Board of Directors;

3. To consult the Chairman of the Directors Board and/or the President about recommendations on remuneration of other executive directors and senior management and to make recommendations to the Board of Directors on the remuneration of the executive directors and senior management, including non-monetary benefits, pension rights and compensation payments (including compensation for loss or termination of office or appointment);
 4. To make recommendations to the Board on the remuneration of non-executive directors;
 5. To consult salaries paid by comparable companies, time commitment and responsibilities and employment conditions of other positions in our Bank;
 6. To review and consider the compensation payable to executive directors and senior management for any loss or termination of office or appointment to ensure that the compensation is consistent with the relevant terms of service agreement and is otherwise fair and not excessive;
 7. To review and consider the compensation arrangements relating to dismissal or removal of directors for misconduct to ensure that they are consistent with the relevant terms of service agreement and are otherwise reasonable and appropriate;
 8. To ensure that no director or any of their associates (as defined in the Hong Kong Listing Rules) is involved in deciding their own remuneration;
 9. To formulate or change the share incentive scheme, employee share ownership scheme, and the conditions to be achieved by eligible participants to obtain and exercise the rights and interests;
 10. To arrange share ownership schemes made by directors and senior management members in the subsidiaries to be spun off.
- (V) Other duties required by relevant laws and regulations, departmental rules, securities regulatory authority in the place where our Bank's shares are listed and the Articles of Association, and as authorized by the Board.

If the Board of Directors does not adopt or does not fully adopt the recommendations of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee, it shall record the opinion of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee and the specific reasons for non-adoption in the resolution of the Board of Directors and disclose the same.

Article 6 The official election, appointment or replacement of directors and senior management should be reviewed by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee in advance and the Nomination and Remuneration Committee should give review comments. The Nomination and Remuneration Committee has no nomination rights, veto rights and approval rights.

Article 7 The Nomination and Remuneration Committee should actively make communications and exchanges with shareholders, directors and the President of our Bank after receiving the proposal for appointment of directors and senior management to seek their opinions on the appointment of directors and senior management.

Article 8 The Nomination and Remuneration Committee should seek the opinions of the nominees on their nomination prior to making review comments to the Board of Directors.

The nominees should publicly declare after nomination: I understand the rights, obligations and responsibilities of a director or senior management personnel and ensure compliance with commitments.

Article 9 The Nomination and Remuneration Committee should be aware of the remuneration policy and market level in the same industry, draft the scientific and reasonable remuneration policies and programs of our Bank and supervise its implementation.

Article 10 The remuneration policies and programs developed by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee shall include the performance evaluation criteria, procedures and principal evaluation system, as well as major programs and systems for reward and punishment.

Article 11 The salary allocation and mode of senior management shall be determined based on the comprehensive evaluation results and the remuneration policy, approved by the Board of Directors, and informed to the general meeting.

Article 12 The Nomination and Remuneration Committee may require the senior management to conduct debriefing and self-evaluation prior to the discussion of their assessment opinions.

Article 13 The Nomination and Remuneration Committee may set up a working group for the important work to carry out specific guidance on the work.

Article 14 The Nomination and Remuneration Committee has the right to request our Bank's senior management to give full support for the work of the Committee and make a reply to the questions raised as soon as possible. Senior management shall have responsibilities to provide adequate and appropriate information for the Nomination and Remuneration Committee in a timely manner to help them make informed decisions and fulfill their obligations. The Nomination and Remuneration Committee and its members may make further investigation when it considers necessary and contact the senior management independently.

Article 15 When necessary, the Nomination and Remuneration Committee may hire an external expert and intermediary institution to provide independent and professional advice for its decisions during performing its duties and the reasonable expenses shall be borne by our Bank.
